Change of Heart

"Wanted:- Men and women willing to leave behind their old way of life and become fishers of men." Can you see job applicants queuing round the block? Would we respond to Jesus' call with the same immediacy as those first disciples?

Probably not! Chances are we'd hesitate long and hard. A hundred and one questions would hold us back. What would being a disciple involve? Would we be up to the job?

What would we have to leave behind? What would we have to give up? Would part time discipleship be okay ... after all we've got lots else to do! Would candidates be permitted to serve two masters, giving up one's own agenda is surely too much to ask!

There would be lots of questions we would ask, but sadly no easy answers. There is no one answer that is right for everybody.

But the one important message for us today is that discipleship usually means a major shift in direction; a change that involves leaving behind things that get in the way of our relationship with God. It is left to each of us to decide what our particular mode of discipleship might be, and what stands in the path of our new direction. Our new direction has to start with some good hard soul searching, and a change of heart.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity-18th-25th January 2018 Crossing Barriers

There are many different expressions of Christianity. In parts of the world where immigration has been high, we will have seen even more expressions of our joint faith. This year more than ever we are asked to remember that there is more that joins us than divides us. This week of prayer is an invitation to start looking not just at the work of the Catholic Church and not just of our own parish, but of Christians everywhere. Together we can be the politicians of peace that Pope Francis asks us to be. We could start by taking a look at Christian websites other than our own, forging links, sharing ideas, and joining forces.

ADORATION takes place every Wednesday in St Fiacc's House from 10.30am to 2.30pm. All Welcome.
